Our Incorporation

The American Association of Code Enforcement was incorporated March 12, 1988 by representatives from five states. We have since grown to an organization with members representing 44 states, the District of Columbia and Canada.

Professional Certification

We offer certification programs in the following areas:

- Zoning Enforcement
- Housing and Property Maintenance
- Certified Code Enforcement Officer
- Code Enforcement Administrator

These examinations were developed by AAACE in conjunction with ICC (International Code Council) and are based on nationally recognized codes. Upon passage, AAACE and ICC award certificates and wallet-sized ID cards. Individuals certified by AAACE may add the letters CCEO (Certified Code Enforcement Officer) to their credentials. Refer to the AAACE Candidate Bulletin for additional information about receiving your certification.
